Mitchell Gatsi – Sculpture Workshop

Sat 5 July 2025 | 09:00 to 17:00 | Swakopmund

VENUE: Swakopmund: Die Ton Fabrik

WORKSHOP FEE: PAN Member: Participating N$ 800; Observing N$ 400
Non-member: Participating N$ 1050; Observing N$ 600
Minimum of 10 Participants necessary to make this course possible in Swakopmund

Mitchell Gatsi is a 3D sculpting graduate from the College of the Arts. Over the years he has exhibited in two solo art exhibitions as well as various group exhibitions such as PAN Biennales, Bank Windhoek Triennale, New Beginnings and Amazing Women, to name a few. He specializes in hand building to create symbolic pieces that express the struggles and successes of being a single parent and the day-to-day journey of raising children singlehandedly. Mitchell aims to grow and develop his creative art by working with skillful and initiative-taking fellow art creators.

In this sculpting workshop we will make a HAND. It will be approximately the size of a 1 litre yoghurt container. Clay and firing will be included in the fee.

What to bring:

- Sculpting tools - PNA Basic Sculpting tools will be sufficient
- Apron
- Notebook & pencil
- Anything else that you may find useful when sculpting a ceramic piece
- Please bring your own snacks and lunch and special drinks; tea & instant coffee will be available
- Clay will be available for sale from Die Tonfabrik
